RESO Interoperability Workgroup Charter

The RESO Interoperability Workgroup's purpose is to identify, through relevant business challenges and needs, solutions that will bring together disparate systems to better serve the real estate industry, especially the practitioners and brokerages.

The Interoperability Workgroup will study submitted business cases, partner with affected stakeholders and coordinate solutions that will produce ease and efficiency of business through the creation, maintenance and evolution of RESO Interoperability standards for the community.

A Day in the Disintegrated Life of an Agent

Meet Niko.

Niko is an owner of a top brokerage in Chicago. He also manages a team that has done 36 transactions and $17m over the last 12 months.

Niko's team runs various facets of his business in at least 34 different platforms on a regular basis, all with separate logins.

Transaction management. Email campaigns. Video marketing. Direct mail. Listing distribution. Lead management.

And so, so many more.

How do we help Niko?
